June 2022 Book Club recommendations

- Cry the Beloved Country by Alan Paton - famous South African classic
- Harbouring by Jenny Patrick - NZ's writer of Denniston Rose fame
- The Very Good Lives - J K Rowling - it's 25 years since Harry Potter hit the shelves
- The Fortune Men by Nadifa Mohamed - short listed Booker 2021
- books by Steve Cavanagh
- Status Anxiety by Alain de Botton - another great philosophy read
- Slow down, you're here - by Brannavan Gnanalingam - a NZ cracking read
- The Children's Train by Viola Ardone - post war novel
- The Secret Life of the Savoy - Olivia Williams - on the Opera House and Hotel who frequents it

Polar series:

- Endurance by Alfred Lansing
- A Biography of Shackleton by Ranulph Fiennes
- Fifteen Million years in Antarctica by Rebecca Preistly

- Dr Rosy Fenwicke's book Cold Wallet is a suggested title to read. A thriller about a cryptocurrency exchange and a business partner cut out of the Will by the deceased co-owner.